

How to Create an Email Account

There are many free email services available. Here are some tips for creating a Gmail account.

You may access the following link: Google (Gmail Account):

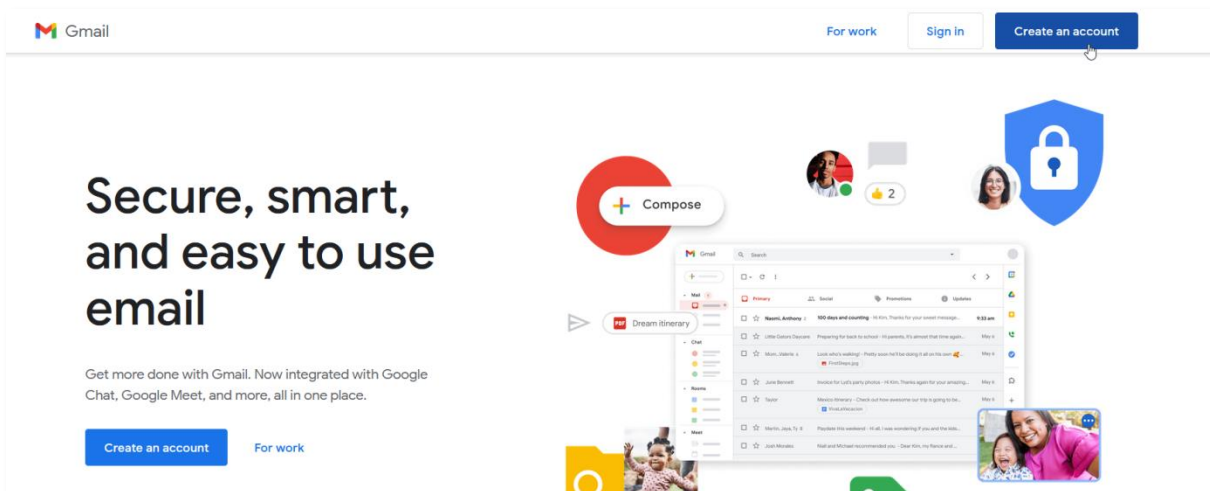

<https://accounts.google.com/SignUp>

Setting up a Gmail account:

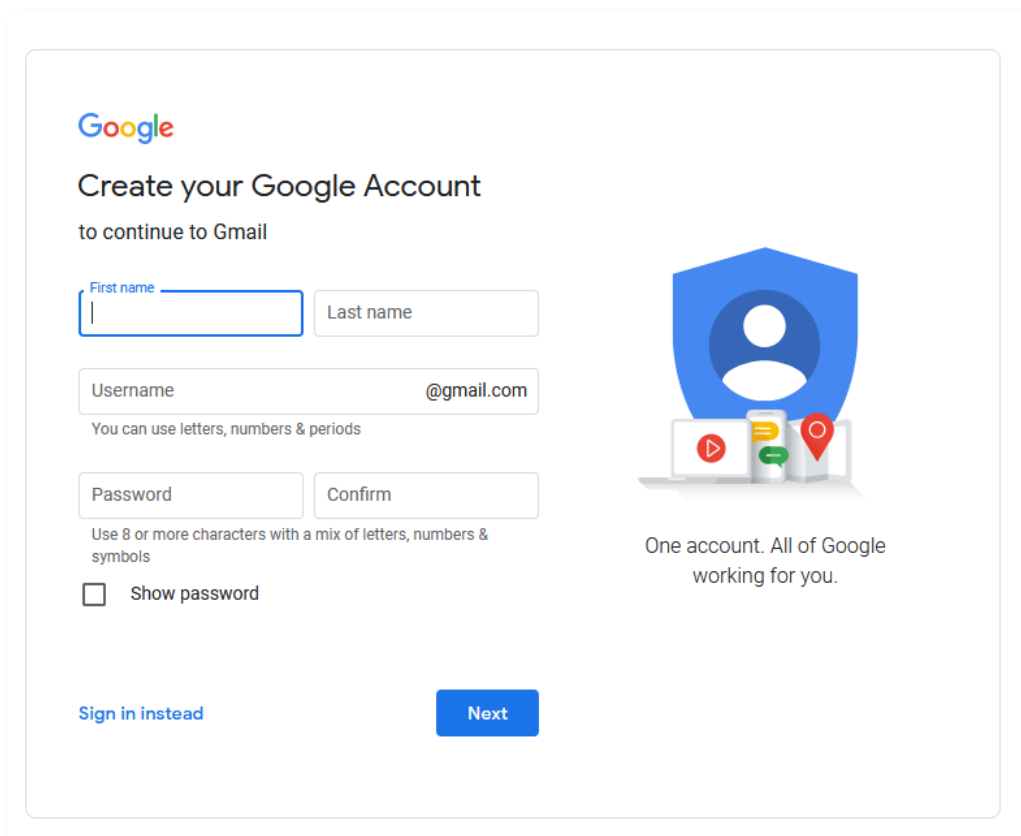

1. To create a Gmail address, you'll first need to create a Google Account.
2. Gmail will redirect you to the Google Account sign-up page.
3. You'll need to provide some basic information like your name, birth date, gender, and location.
4. You will also need to choose a name for your new Gmail address.
5. Once you create an account, you'll be able to start adding contacts and adjusting your mail settings.

To create an account:

1. Go to www.gmail.com
2. Click on "Create an account".

3. The sign-up form will appear.
4. Follow the directions, enter the required information, and click on “Next”.

The screenshot shows the Google Account creation interface. At the top left is the Google logo. Below it, the text reads "Create your Google Account" and "to continue to Gmail". The form includes fields for "First name", "Last name", "Username" (with "@gmail.com" as a placeholder), "Password", and "Confirm". A note states "You can use letters, numbers & periods" for the username and "Use 8 or more characters with a mix of letters, numbers & symbols" for the password. There is a checkbox for "Show password". To the right of the form is a graphic of a blue shield with a person icon, a play button, a speech bubble, and a location pin. Below the graphic, the text says "One account. All of Google working for you." At the bottom left is a link for "Sign in instead" and at the bottom right is a blue "Next" button.

5. Review Google's Terms of Service and Privacy Policy, click the checkbox, and then click on “Next”.
6. Click on “I agree”. Your account will be created, and the Gmail page will appear.

The screenshot shows a dialog box with a "More options" dropdown menu at the top left. Below it, there is a "Cancel" link and a blue "I agree" button. A mouse cursor is pointing at the "I agree" button.
